June 2022

NJSRC Attendees,

One word springs to mind - Formidable! Welcome to the LSRPA's 2022 New Jersey Site Remediation Conference!

This year we find ourselves emerging from the necessary travails imposed as a result of responding to the pandemic: We are happy to be here, now, and in-person too! We have responded to demand, built on the successes of our prior conferences, and considered the requests all have expressed to craft this year's event for you.

With each year, we strive to provide more foci for education, more space for networking, and opportunities to make connections. We have succeeded in doing this, we are confident you will benefit from being here - and be happy you attended.

We are happy to have the NJDEP Commissioner Mr. Shawn LaTourette, and Assistant Commissioner Mark Pedersen among our presenters. After only a few years since it began, this conference has become the primary hub of environmental commerce in New Jersey, in addition to being the forum for technical excellence. You will see how our training sessions cover rules, theories, experiences, and lessons learned for each of the technical topics discussed.

I have the honor and privilege of serving as your President of the LSRPA for 2022. I'm proud of all that we have accomplished together and excited about what the LSRPA will continue to accomplish. I have a request: Please play an active part in the association, our association – your association. I have personally learned so much from participating and collaborating inside the LSRPA. I feel I have accelerated my professional development, raised my awareness of the industry around me, and received unbelievable support and utility for my own practice. I have gathered colleagues as many friends too.

On behalf of all members, sponsors, committee volunteers, our committee chairs & co-chairs, the steering committee, our trustees, our executive directors, and assistant executive directors, our professional staff, and conference committee members, we welcome you to this event and hope you enjoy this event - in addition to receiving all of the other tangible benefits it offers.

Thank you all, for what each of you do, on our collective behalf: Thank you for safeguarding public health, and safety, and the environment of New Jersey.

Sincerely,

David J. Morris, LSRP, SSE, LIEC
President, Licensed Site Remediation Professionals Association

Welcome to the 2022 New Jersey Site Remediation Conference (NJSRC)! The LSRPA is thrilled to welcome you in person to this fantastic event! As always, the 2022 NJSRC will offer great content for LSRPs, guests, vendors, and allied professionals. Attendees will find a diverse lineup of courses, nine technical presentations, and seven NJDEP topical presentations, each with timely information and practical advice.

We're grateful to our generous sponsors and exhibitors who'll fill the exhibit hall. New this year, six exhibitors will bring engaging outdoor displays. Tuesday evening's Celebration and Awards reception is also new. The Conference will welcome NJDEP Assistant Commissioner Mark Pedersen, and include an awards presentation, fun corn hole and golf competitions, and great food and drinks!

Don't miss our lunchtime program on Wednesday We're thrilled to welcome NJDEP Commissioner Shawn LaTourette, who'll provide insight into issues affecting New Jersey's environment and LSRPs. Also, Professor John Morano, distinguished professor of journalism at Monmouth University and author of the EcoAdventure Series of novels, will discuss the world's environments and the species that live within them.

Thank you for choosing to attend the 2022 NJSRC! The NJSRC Committee includes dedicated LSRPA members and staff. We've built this Conference with guidance from LSRPA leadership and valuable feedback from past Conference attendees.
